

CfP: Berlin Colloquium on the History of Sexuality

The Colloquium aims to be an unheirarchichal forum committed to the exchange of ideas among students of history, cultural studies, literature, and sexuality in Berlin.

We address all who work on the history of sexuality, broadly defined as the history of practices, discourses, and representations of sexuality, bodies, gender, and emotions.

Invited are all who work with a historical/cultural studies approach, regardless of academic title, institutional connection, or focus in a particular subject or epoch. We meet every other week in Berlin-Mitte (at the Humboldt University) to discuss research papers that are sent out in advance. Discussions are primarily in German, though English language presentations are welcome.

The dates for this winter semester meetings are 14 November and 28, December 12 and 19, January 16 and 30, and February 13, from 18:30 to 20:00.
